

STUDENTS OF LEGAL AGE

All students of the District schools, including students in regular classes who have reached the age of 18, students in the community education program, and any postsecondary student attending the High School shall observe all the rules and regulations established by Board policy or the school administration for all students unless special exceptions have been made.

The school administration is authorized to make special regulations for adult students in keeping with their greater maturity, provided that these regulations do not violate basic Board policy.
