

STUDENT PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

The school psychologist is available to assist teachers, administrators, health personnel, and parents in working with children who have learning or behavior problems. Individual testing, counseling, and recommendations for further assistance are all a part of the service. In addition, the school psychologist plays a major role in identification of children who may benefit from individual services.

[Adoption date: August 6, 1991]