

DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Initiating a Complaint

Individuals who feel they have been subjected to unlawful discrimination or retaliation may file a complaint, either orally or in writing, with the compliance officer or an administrator, supervisor, or other District-level administrator. Employees are required to promptly report to the compliance officer or an administrator, supervisor, or other District-level administrator when they become aware of incidents of unlawful discrimination or retaliation. All other persons associated with the District are encouraged to promptly report when they become aware of such incidents. Any administrator, supervisor, or District-level administrator who receives such a complaint must forward it to the compliance officer. If the compliance officer is the subject of the complaint, an individual may file a complaint with the Superintendent, who shall assume the role of compliance officer for such complaints. If the Superintendent is the subject of the complaint, the complaint should be referred to the Board President.

The Board has adopted separate policies and procedures for sexual harassment. All sexual harassment reports must be managed in accordance with the sexual harassment policy and procedure.

Interim Measures

Upon receiving a complaint, the compliance officer will consider whether any interim measures should be taken to restore or preserve equal access to the District's education program or activity, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties or the District's educational environment, or deter discrimination. The compliance officer should consider the complainant's wishes with respect to interim measures, but may move forward with any interim measures deemed appropriate.

Investigating a Complaint

The compliance officer shall investigate the complaint to determine whether the complainant has been subjected to unlawful discrimination or retaliation. The investigation may include individual interviews with the parties involved, interviews with individuals who may have observed the alleged conduct or may have other relevant knowledge, and consideration of any documentation or other information presented by the parties or other individuals who may have observed the alleged conduct or may have other relevant knowledge. The respondent will be provided an opportunity to respond to the allegations during the investigative process and before any determinations are made.

The District may refer the investigation to a third party.

At the conclusion of the investigation, the compliance officer shall review the merits of the complaint, summarize the relevant evidence, and prepare and deliver a written report to the complainant and respondent that outlines whether the complainant has been subjected to unlawful discrimination or retaliation. The compliance officer may consult with the Board's legal counsel prior to finalizing the report.

The report is final and binding.

Informal Resolution

At any time during the complaint procedure and prior to reaching a determination regarding responsibility, the District may facilitate an informal resolution process that does not involve a full investigation and determination of responsibility provided that the District obtains the parties' voluntary, written consent to the informal resolution process. If the parties do not reach resolution through the informal resolution process, the parties will resume the complaint procedure at the point they left off.

[Adoption Date: June 16, 2021]